-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
  - If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
  - If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
  - Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

There is an inconsistency between these claims and their respective parent claims which claim "game machines" and not "optical disks" as these claims claim as the invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 and 16-38 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The difference between the claimed invention and the prior art of record is that the prior art of record uses time stamps for synchronizing audio and video whereas the claimed inventions are using "delimiters" which has a special meaning to those skilled in the art via the technical dictionaries that are found on the Internet, see e.g. OneLook.com.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 5-3-04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The amendment to the claims made the claimed inventions define over the prior art of record and not the arguments against Okada. Further, the restriction requirement is moot because the Applicant have now have a "special technical feature", the newly amended language presented in the amendment received 5-3-04.

Conclusion

In order for this case to pass to issue, the Applicant needs to cancel claim 13-15. To rewrite claims 13-15 would require a further search and consideration and thus an advisory action would follow. Applicant could present a set of rewritten claims 13-15 in a request for continuing prosecution if so desired.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
